

PROTECTION OF CHILDREN FROM SEXUAL OFFENSES (POCSO) ACT, 2012

The POCSO Act encompasses a range of child sexual offenses such as harassment and exploitation, aiming to provide a legal framework that prioritizes the well-being of young individuals. It establishes protocols for conducting investigations and trials with sensitivity to minimize any further emotional distress.

Presidium School, Noida sector-31, wholeheartedly upholds the provisions outlined in the POCSO Act, actively working to shield children from any form of exploitation. Through a commitment to understanding and addressing the unique needs of each student, the school is unwavering in its dedication to ensuring that swift and fair justice is served, ultimately contributing to a safer and more promising future for all its students.
